

Press Release

Stockholm 2 May 2001

Change in management at Virtual Genetics

Board member Johan Emilsson appointed as acting MD of bioinformatics company

Virtual Genetics is strengthening its strategic positioning towards bioinformatics solutions whilst modifying its delivery model to the market.

Johan Emilsson, with solid experience in profitable product-based consultancy, will head up the restructuring of the company, says Christer Sjölin, Chairman of the Board for Virtual Genetics.

For further information:

Bo Lindström, Investor Relations. Tel. 08 - 508 84 400/402

Nordiska Fondkommission AB publishes current buying and selling prices of the company's shares at: www.nordiska.com

Virtual Genetics Laboratory AB develops hi-tech bioinformatic solutions. The company was founded in 1997 and provides technology that considerably simplifies the analysis of large quantities of medical research and development data.