

NEW PARTNERSHIP APPOINTMENT AT SCOTT REES

Scott Rees has welcomed a new partner to its management team.

Solicitor Jonathan Evans, who heads the firm's Employer and Public Liability section, has been promoted to partnership level at the North West firm of personal injury specialists.

Jonathan, originally from North Wales, studied History at the University of London before taking a law conversion course at Manchester Metropolitan University.

He completed his solicitor training contract with Scott Rees in 2000 and left the firm for a period to rejoin in 2008; he was subsequently made an Associate and now oversees four teams of solicitors and paralegals.

He said: I am delighted to have been made a Partner with Scott Rees and look forward to the new challenges ahead. Scott Rees is a dynamic and progressive firm providing professional claims expertise in a wide variety of areas including accidents on the road, in the workplace and public areas.
