

Website Launch Is A Triumph For Just Search Ireland

The launch of the Just Search Ireland website has been a great success with praise coming in from clients as well as industry professionals.

Following the redesign of the UK site, the Irish website was also re-launched earlier this month to complement the Dublin branch of the internet marketing company. Since the website went live, the Just Search office in Dublin has been receiving a greater volume of phone calls and enquiries regarding the services offered by Just Search Ireland, part of the Getupdated group.

Potential clients can browse the user friendly website to find out more about the services offered by Just Search Ireland. And with pages dedicated to each of the internet marketing services, visitors are finding the site is really easy to navigate.

As well as finding out about Just Search Ireland and its services, users can view video animations which explain how they can benefit from SEO. The website is the one stop shop for any business thinking of launching an internet marketing campaign, offering plenty of information, advice and guidance.

Gillian Foley Client Support Administrator at the Dublin office said: 'We've definitely noticed our phones ringing more since the new website launched. This is as a result of the great work the guys have done creating a professional, clean and user friendly site. Clients have been really impressed at the layout and the colour scheme and some of them have even enquired about our web design services because of it.'

Paul Yates, Group Chief Executive Officer for Getupdated, said: 'Just Search is continuously growing and with new offices opening up all the time across Europe, it's an exciting time for the Getupdated group. This new website is really going to help Just Search penetrate the internet marketing industry in Ireland and it completes the launch of the Dublin office, which is already proving to be a successful addition to the Getupdated group.'

The website was designed to attract new clients and offer them plenty of up to date information about the internet marketing packages offered by Just Search Ireland. And just a few weeks in, it's already proving a huge success.
