

Relax and Unwind in Late Night London

During the cold months of February and March, one of the busiest concert venues in the country will stage a programme of late night concerts.

There is no better way to wind down and forget your worries than to come along to a late evening candlelit performance at St Martin-in-the-Fields, enjoy a glass of wine and some wonderful music. As always, St Martin's will invite some of the finest musicians in London to perform an hour of music in the beautiful and tranquil surroundings of this eighteenth century church. Concerts will last one hour with no interval and are designed to offer relaxation, enjoyment and lots of variety, allowing people to escape from the stresses and strains of daily life. Concert-goers can complete the experience with a glass of house wine in the Café in the Crypt before the concert.

Tickets can be bought for the very reasonable price of £19 which includes an unreserved seat and a glass of house wine, and are available online at www.smitf.org or from the Box Office on 020 7766 1100. There are four concerts to choose from:
