FORGEFIX ANNOUNCES TERRY GALLIER'S RETIREMENT

ForgeFix has announced the retirement of Area Sales Manager for Scotland, Terry Gallier. Terry leaves the distributor of fixings, fastenings and associated products after eight years of service, having joined from JCB in 2003. He plans to enjoy his well-earned retirement spending more time with friends and family, including his three children and four grandchildren.

During his time at ForgeFix, Terry has become a greatly respected member of the team and his efforts have made an invaluable contribution to enhancing the reputation and success of the business in Scotland, an important area for the company.

Speaking of his pending retirement, Terry commented: "I've loved working for ForgeFix and I'm particularly proud of the results we've achieved in Scotland. While I'm obviously going to miss working for the company, after almost forty years in the industry I'm also looking forward to starting a new chapter in my life."

Mike Smith, Sales and Marketing Director at ForgeFix, added: "I'd like to thank Terry for his contribution to the business over the past eight years. He's done a fantastic job and although we're sad to lose such a valued and experienced member of staff we wish him all the best in his retirement."
