

ConNova appoints Anders Ericsson as Managing Director

Press release
Motala, Sweden
26 November 2001

ConNova's Board of Directors has today appointed Anders Ericsson as the company's new Managing Director. He will take over the position with immediate effect. Acting Managing Director, Claes Rossby will during a transitional period continue to work for ConNova as adviser to the management. Anders Ericsson was previously Managing Director of Billiant, a company with complementary activities that in accordance with a newly signed agreement will be acquired by ConNova. Anders Ericsson has considerable experience of international management and sales within the industry. His professional background includes positions as Country Manager and Marketing Manager within the Ericsson group.
