

Online Health and Beauty at Debenhams

Debenhams is the first department store to offer premium cosmetic houses online. www.debenhams.com launched in October 2001 and offers thousands of beauty essentials to suit everyone, whether you want to try a new brand, buy your favourite skincare product or find the ideal gift.

Clinique, Estee Lauder, Lancaster Suncare and Clarins are just some of the famous names available online. Also available are Mea and Spa, Debenhams own cosmetics and beauty brands; as well as Capsule, which launched exclusively in Debenhams in May 2002.

Capsule, the fantastic new cosmetics brand exclusive to Debenhams, has been designed to solve specific skincare needs. The range has been developed in conjunction with two experienced beauty editors, Emma Bannister and Kate Shapland, whose experience has enabled them to identify skin care issues and what women want from their skincare. The range includes items such as Whipped Cream Cleanser £10, Combat Capsules £22, Buff and Boost face cloth £5 and Perfect Skin Cream £20.

New and exclusive to www.debenhams.com is the cosmetics range Bloom. Bloom is an Australian company which reflects the fresh Australian lifestyle. Launched in 1993, it now boasts famous customers such as Britney Spears, Helena Christiansen and Victoria Beckham. It's products are 'feel good' indulgences and include lip glosses in colours such as Cutie Pie, Peck, Sweet Pea, Pout and Smooch, and sheer colour cream in Dewy, Glow and Sunkissed colours.

For Fathers Day, there will be special offers on lots of designer fragrances including Davidoff Cool Water for Men, Joop Homme and Joop Rocco for Men, plus there are other online offers for the summer. These include a nail varnish worth £6.29, with every purchase from the Revlon cosmetics range. Also, a free bag, lipstick and mascara when you buy two items from the Ultima II skincare range. Burberry launch online this summer and you can choose from either Touch or Weekend fragrances for men and women. If you spend £15 on L'Occitane en Provence you will receive a free handcream.

With simple online shopping, an optional gift wrap service and delivery direct to your door are available from just £2.95. Looking and feeling your best has never been easier!
