Comintell takes over ZineMeUp's product portfolio

Comintell, the leading Nordic Knowledge Management company, today announced the addition of five new products from ZineMeUp AB to its Knowledge Management software portfolio.

Comintell will take over all rights for ZineMeUp ABs products and all existing customer relations with immediate effect. This includes products like Media Manager, Web Magazine and Interactive Web Surveys and customers such as Ericsson Telecom, Chalmers University of Technology and the Swedish Newspaper Publishers Association. Simultaneously, ZineMeUp will become a certified reseller of Comintell products.

"We are pleased to continue to expand our portfolio of Knowledge Management technologies," says Jesper E. Martell, CEO of Comintell Nordic AB. "We have worked with ZineMeUp for many years and know that their products will complement our existing solutions very well to the benefit of our customers."

"The agreement with Comintell is of strategic importance to us. The integration of our product package with Comintell will enable us, as a partner, to participate in delivering world class software solutions for Content and Knowledge Management", says Jakob Sverker, CEO of ZineMeUp AB.
