

Press Release

Cario evaluates French healthcare company

Cario has initiated an analysis of the French hospital group Clininvest. Negotiations are at an early stage and a decision about a possible acquisition could be taken during the autumn.

This information is being disclosed in accordance with French regulations, which require that such information is distributed to all trade union representatives

Cario AB (publ)
July 02, 2002