A STAR ALLIANCE MEMBER

Low price Internet booking to Amsterdam, Brussels and Paris

Scandinavian Airlines is now introducing low prices for Internet bookings to more destinations in Europe. Starting September 19, customers can purchase tickets for SEK 1,295 round-trip from Stockholm and Gothenburg at www.sas.se to Amsterdam, Brussels and Paris.

The tickets can be booked for all departures to Amsterdam, Brussels and Paris on a space-available basis.

“Our low Internet prices to London during the past months have attracted a large number of new customers who previously did not travel with us,” says Camilla Wallander, Marketing Manager at Scandinavian Airlines in Sweden.

More for the money

Among other services, passengers traveling with Scandinavian Airlines receive:

- Food, drink and newspaper onboard
- Fly to and from the main airport (not a secondary airport)
- Eurobonus points
- Large selection of departure times
- Airline Passenger Service Commitment in accordance with EU Commission guidelines.

“SAS provides good service during all phases of the trip and our customers know it,” says Camilla Wallander. “We focus continually on quality goals. Scandinavian Airlines provides a higher level of service than that prescribed in the EU Commission’s guidelines before, during and after the trip. The Service commitment means that the passenger is treated properly in the event of any delays during the trip.”

For further information, contact Camilla Wallander, Marketing Manager for SAS in Sweden, telephone +46 (0) 70 997 40 40.

The price includes taxes and fees and the trip can be booked on www.sas.se and via a number of web travel agents. The trip must be booked 21 days prior to departure.
