Telia voted best in Investor Relations for second year in a row

For the second consecutive year Telia has been named the best listed company in Sweden in the investor relations area.

The survey, conducted by the renowned international publication Investor Relations Magazine, was based on more than 200 interviews with Nordic financial analysts and mutual funds managers.

The investor relations programs of Nordic companies were evaluated for the second year in a row for the "Investor Relations Magazine Nordic Awards". The awards ceremony took place in Oslo.
