Saab Nyge Aero wins extended maintenance contract for the SK60 worth SEK 75 million

The contract with the Defence Matériel Administration is valid for three years and covers maintenance, modifications and technical support to the all the Swedish Armed Forces' SK60 aircraft and associated apparatus. The value over the three years of the contract is approximately SEK 75 million.

This agreement takes up an option in a previous five-year agreement, and means that Saab Nyge Aero is reinforcing its position as a maintenance provider for the Swedish Armed Forces' air organisation. The work with the SK60 will primarily take place in Saab Nyge Aero's aircraft workshops in Ljungbyhed.

Saab Nyge Aero is a company that provides maintenance and modifications to aircraft and helicopters, as well as special flight services such as target flights, calibration and testing for civilian and military customers.

Saab Nyge Aero, a company in the Saab Group, has 160 employees and a turnover of SEK 270 million.

Saab is one of the world's leading high-technology companies, with its main operations focusing on defence, aviation and space. The group covers a broad spectrum of competence and capability in systems integration.
