

Intrum Justitia form strategic alliance with D&B RMS in the Americas and Asia

Intrum Justitia, with operations in 21 European countries, and D&B Receivable Management Services (D&B RMS) with offices in the United States, Canada, Mexico and Hong Kong, signed an exclusive multi-year strategic alliance to provide receivables management services for each other's clients on a global scale.

Initially, Intrum Justitia and D&B Receivable Management Services will provide reciprocal cross-border servicing and customer service. Over time, the two companies expect to offer further products and services. The agreement will enable Intrum Justitia's clients to have their U.S., Canada, Mexico and Hong Kong receivables handled by D&B Receivable Management Services. In turn, D&B Receivable Management Services' clients will benefit by having their European accounts handled by Intrum Justitia.

"We are pleased our alliance with D&B Receivable Management Services will provide Intrum Justitia's clients with expert receivables management services and strong results on a global scale," said Bertil Persson, acting CEO of Intrum Justitia. "In addition to receivables management services, both companies have committed to cooperating on product development and marketing initiatives. I also expect us to be able to strengthen our complete outsourcing offer."

David Huebner, President & CEO, D&B Receivable Management Services added: "D&B RMS and Intrum Justitia are a natural fit – two world-class organizations with complimentary products, services and geographical synergies. This alliance represents a tremendous value proposition for our customers, providing best in class receivables management services virtually anywhere in the world."
