

Munters receives large order from the poultry industry

The world's largest poultry farm, Al Watania, in Saudi Arabia, has placed an order for Munters CELdek® evaporative cooling pads.

The Al Watania poultry farm is a Munters' customer since many years and has installed Munters CELdek® systems in many of its 14 000 poultry houses. The order is for replacement of CELdek® evaporative cooling pads. The pads will be delivered in December 2002 and January 2003.

The order value is over SEK 6 million.
