

PRESS RELEASE November 29, 2002

Svensk Kassaservice announces new fee for over-the-counter payments to Postgirot accounts

From January 1, 2003, Svensk Kassaservice is raising the transaction fee on over-the-counter payments to Postgirot accounts from 25 kronor to 35 kronor.

The purpose of the increase is to recoup operations costs at Svensk Kassaservice.

The new fee also applies to payments made via rural letter carriers.

Svensk Kassaservice aims to be the obvious choice for customers wanting personal, over-the-counter cashier service. A wholly owned subsidiary of Posten AB, Svensk Kassaservice AB offers routine financial services. At Svensk Kassaservice, customers can pay bills; deposit, withdraw and wire money; make overseas payments; and desposit daily business receipts. We act as an agent for Nordea, Föreningssparbanken and its network of savings banks, Lånsförsäkringar Bank and Postgirot Bank. Svensk Kassaservice maintains a nationwide presence through standalone outlets, its network of partners as well as Posten's rural letter carriers.
