Wihlborgs sells three properties in Denmark at a profit of SEK 102 million

Wihlborgs has sold three properties in Denmark for SEK 542 million at a profit of SEK 102 million. The profit will be included in the result for the first quarter of 2003.

Wihlborgs has also acquired two properties in Helsingborg and one in Malmö for a total of SEK 30 million. All properties acquired are adjacent to existing Wihlborgs properties.

"The sale is in line with our strategy of realising values in properties and we will continue to develop and improve properties in Denmark," says Erik Paulsson, managing director, Wihlborgs Fastigheter.
