

Press release, May 15, 2003

OM and HEX in talks regarding close co-operation

OM confirms that it has been in talks with HEX for some time, aiming at a close co-operation between the two companies.

The parties will release more information, if and when there is more information to give. Until that time, no further comments will be made.