

Press Release

Management change at Norema

Björn Arnestad is, at his own request, leaving his position as Manager of Nobia's Norwegian Business Unit, Norema.

Björn Arnestad has successfully lead the business through some years of great change, seeing the introduction of the common measurement standard, K20 and the shift from production to assembly. Business at Norema is now entering a new phase, with increased focus on market and sales.

Peter Petersson has been appointed acting Business Unit Manager. Petersson is Vice President responsible for Business Development and Human Resources in the Nobia Group.

The change will be in effect from 1 June.
