Trio signs new agreement regarding Trio Mobile Office

Trio has signed an agreement with a mobile operator regarding Trio's mobile office solution Trio Mobile Office. Trio Mobile Office will be installed in the operator's mobile telephony network during the autumn.

The target group for the mobile office is corporate clients. Customers can choose to use only mobile telephones and still have full access to switch functionality as well as an attendant workstation. This is a comprehensive mobile solution for all employees within a company.

"This agreement shows that Trio continues to be successful within corporate telephony and this is a receipt of Trio's position as a leading supplier of mobile corporate telephony for mobile operators", says Sverker Hannervall, CEO of Trio.
