

Press release 3 September 2003

New President of Trio Enterprise Division

Michael Stubbing has been appointed new President of Trio Enterprise Division that develops and sells value-added call handling systems for telephony switching platforms, which enhances the efficiency and the customer service in companies.

Michael Stubbing has more than 20 years experience from the IT industry and has lately been at Telelogic where he worked as Global Client Executive. Previously he was employed at IBM where he held several leading positions as, among others, responsible for E-business and Systems Integration within IBM Global Services and Country Manager for IBM Insurance Sector.

"Michael's long experience within IT and telecom where he successfully has worked both national as international, will strengthen Trio in the company's expansion. Therefore, it is very satisfying for us to have Michael joining the Management of Trio ", says Sverker Hannervall, CEO of Trio.

Trio Enterprise Division offers Trio PresentOffice that includes integrated telephony and advanced call and message handling and Objecta TeleVoice that includes solutions for call centre systems, interactive voice response systems and contact centre solutions.
