

Teleca renews general agreement with leading telecom supplier

Teleca has renewed its general agreement with Ericsson for services in the area of research and development. The agreement runs to March 2005 and applies globally to the whole Teleca group.

"During the past decade we've been continuously strengthening our relationship with Ericsson, our biggest customer and an important partner," says Patrik Strandéus, Teleca's global account manager for Ericsson. "We're looking forward to continuing to reinforce our close collaboration."

The agreement covers several areas, such as the development and maintenance of 2.5/3G systems and the development and maintenance of advanced fixed network systems. The agreement is global and includes projects in progress in Europe, Asia and the United States.
