HiQ appoints new CIO and Investor Relations Manager

HiQ has appointed Annika Larsson as the new CIO and Investor Relations Manager at HiQ International.

Annika previously worked at Hagströmer & Qviberg as an equity analyst responsible for analysing the Nordic IT consultancy sector, including HiQ.

“Annika has followed HiQ’s development for several years and has had a lot of contact with me and other key people here at HiQ. She has a good knowledge of HiQ as a company as well as our market and our competitors. Annika is very capable of managing our information and IR matters well,” says Lars Stugemo, President of HiQ International.

Anna Jennehov, who has been responsible for information and IR matters until now, will return to her position as Group Controller at HiQ International.
