Press release

Kicki Olivensjö appointed as new Director of Purchasing at Lindex

Lindex has appointed Kicki Olivensjö as Director of Purchasing with effect from October 1. In conjunction with her appointment Kicki Olivensjö will resign from the board of AB Lindex.

"Kicki Olivensjö was elected to the board of Lindex in December 2004 and as a member of the board she has become well acquainted with Lindex as a company," says Göran Bille, President and CEO of Lindex.

In recent years Kicki Olivensjö has worked as a fashion and textile consultant. Prior to this she was design and production manager at Peak Performance. She also spent 12 years at H&M, including the position of section manager for women's wear as well as involvement in the development of new markets at the H&M office in Hong Kong.

As Director of Purchasing at Lindex, Kicki Olivensjö will have overall responsibility for the three Lindex business areas: Lingerie, Women's Wear and Children's Wear. The position also includes responsibility for Lindex production offices in Europe and Asia.
