Surveillance and Enforcement

Stockholm Stock Exchange

The Stockholm Stock Exchange has issued three companies criticism for infractions of the rules of the Exchange. These infractions were not of such a serious nature that they required to be handled by the Disciplinary Committee. One company was criticized since their forecasts were unclear and because the company did not announce changes to the forecasts in a correct manner. Two companies were criticized for having disclosed price sensitive information in an incorrect manner.

In October, Karlshamns AB and HQ Fonder AB were placed on the Observation segment of the Stockholm Stock Exchange. Karlshamns AB since the company no longer fulfilled the listing requirement regarding ownership concentration, and HQ Fonder AB since the company had applied for delisting of the company's shares from the Stockholm Stock Exchange.

During October, two cases have been reported to the Swedish Financial Services Authority, one of which concerned suspected insider trading.

Helsinki Stock Exchange

In October, the secretary of the Disciplinary Board of the Helsinki Stock Exchange issued a reprimand to two listed companies for violation of the disclosure rules. One company did not comply with the rule of simultaneous disclosure. The other company was reprimanded for insufficient disclosure and for having failed to comply with the rule of simultaneous disclosure. Two cases of suspected insider trading and one case of possible market abuse were reported to the Finnish Financial Supervisory Authority.

Copenhagen Stock Exchange

The Copenhagen Stock Exchange dealt with one voluntary bid in October.

Over the month, four companies were placed on the observation segment of the Copenhagen Stock Exchange for different reasons: TDC A/S awaits the result of a possible acquisition offer, Aarhus Elite A/S awaits clarification of its financial situation due to loss of more than half of its share capital, Biomar A/S' majority shareholder is investigating the possibility of selling all its shares in the company, and Københavns Lufthavne A/S due to a voluntary bid submitted to the company's shareholders to acquire all shares.
