In order to give a better representation of our underlying economic performance, we have decided to publish and explain adjusted consolidated income statements¹ for 2005 and the fourth quarter of 2005, and to compare them with adjusted pro forma income statements¹ for 2004 and the fourth quarter of 2004 respectively. Full-year adjusted net income for 2005 was $\in 6,335$ million, against $\in 5,025$ million for 2004.

OUTLOOK FOR 2006

Commenting on 2006 outlook, the Chairman and CEO Mr Jean-François Dehecq said: "Barring major adverse events, and after taking account of the full-year impact of generics of Allegra®, Amaryl®, Arava®, and DDAVP®, we expect 2006 full-year adjusted EPS growth around 10%, based on an exchange rate of €1:$1.25, with sensitivity to the euro/dollar exchange rate estimated at 0.6% of growth for a 1-cent movement in the exchange rate". Adjusted consolidated income statement (unaudited)

The adjusted consolidated income statement is presented in Appendix 2.

Refer to Appendix 1 for definitions of "Pro forma income statement" and "Adjusted net income", and to Appendix 3 for reconciliations of the consolidated income statement to the adjusted consolidated income statement.

Fourth quarter of 2005 (compared to adjusted fourth quarter of 2004)

Net sales generated by sanofi-aventis in the fourth quarter of 2005 were €7,007 million, a rise of 4.8% on a comparable basis. Exchange rate movements had a favorable effect of 3 points, and changes in Group structure had a negative effect of 0.8 of a point. After taking account of these effects, net sales rose by 7.0% on a reported basis.

Gross profit was €5,442 million, 9.1% higher than in the fourth quarter of 2004. Despite the introduction of generics of Allegra® and Amaryl® in the United States, the gross margin ratio (77.7%) increased by 1.5 points year-on-year thanks to tight control over cost of sales, a favorable product mix, and a 20.9% rise in "Other revenues".

Research and development expenses were 6.6% up on the fourth quarter of 2004 at €1,150 million.

Selling and general expenses rose by 11.9% relative to the fourth quarter of 2004 to €2,283 million, representing 32.6% of net sales (vs. 31.1% in the fourth quarter of 2004). Selling expenses rose sharply due to the launch of Ambien CRTM in the United States, and to preparations for the Japanese launch of Plavix® and the launch of Rimonabant. There were further reductions in general expenses.

Other current operating income came to €69 million, compared with €129 million in the final quarter of 2004. The net change in this line includes a rise in the Group's share of profits from Actonel[®]. The result of currency hedging is a small loss this year to be compared to a profit in the same period of the previous year.

The Employee Share Ownership Plan implemented in the fourth quarter of 2005 generated an expense of €31 million for the period. This expense, which is not deductible for tax purposes, is allocated to "Cost of sales", "Research and development expenses" and "Selling and general expenses", depending on the function occupied by individual employees.

Operating income – current came to €2,020 million, with year-on-year growth limited to 4.0% due to the impact of generics of 4 products² in the United States; the significant increase in selling expenses and research and development expenses; net foreign exchange gains and losses; and the Employee Share Ownership Plan.

Other operating income and expenses, which includes the reversal of a provision (€59 million) relating to litigation with Bayer, shows income of €35 million, against €1 million for the fourth quarter of 2004.

Operating income was up 6.4% at €2,056 million.

Net financial expense amounted to €21 million, compared with €133 million in the fourth quarter of 2004. This marked improvement was due partly to a lower cost of debt and a reduction in net debt as a result of the cash flow generated by the Group, and partly to €30 million of gains arising on the disposal of certain equity holdings (mainly Viropharma).

Income tax expense came to €643 million, against €616 million for the fourth quarter of 2004, giving an effective tax rate of 31.6% (compared with 34.2%).

The share of profit from associates was €140 million, against €101 million in the fourth quarter of 2004. This line includes the Group's share of after-tax profits from the territories managed by BMS under the Plavix[®] and Avapro[®] alliance (€109 million, vs. €96 million in the fourth quarter of 2004). There was a marked increase in the contribution from Merial.

Minority interests amounted to €88 million, compared with €90 million in the fourth quarter of 2004. This line includes the share of pre-tax profits paid over to BMS from territories managed by sanofi-aventis (€80 million, vs. €82 million in the fourth quarter of 2004).

Net income was 20.8% higher at €1,444 million, representing 20.6% of net sales (vs. 18.2% for the fourth quarter of 2004).

Earnings per share (EPS) was €1.08, 20.0% higher than the 2004 fourth-quarter figure of €0.90, based on 1,338.5 million shares in the fourth quarter of 2005 and 1,333.8 million shares in the fourth quarter of 2004.

2005 full year (compared to 2004 full-year adjusted pro forma)

In 2005, sanofi-aventis generated net sales of €27,311 million, a rise of 9.3% on a comparable basis. Over the full year, exchange rate movements had a neutral effect, while changes in Group structure had a negative effect of 0.9 of a point. After taking account of these effects, reported-basis growth was 8.4%.

Gross profit was €21,341 million, 10.1% up on 2004. The gross margin ratio advanced by 1.2 points to 78.1%, compared with 76.9% in 2004. This improvement was achieved thanks to stronger sales, a favorable product mix, productivity gains, and the Group's purchasing policy.

Research and development expenses were 2.0% higher than in 2004 at €4,044 million, representing 14.8% of net sales.

Selling and general expenses rose by 4.6% year-on-year to €8,250 million, representing 30.2% of net sales. Promotional expenses grew significantly over the year as a whole, but there was a sharp fall in general expenses.

Other current operating income was €261 million, against €314 million in 2004, reflecting lower foreign exchange gains than in 2004. The Group's share of profits from Actonel® recorded further growth.

"Operating income – current" was 18.7% higher at €9,072 million, representing 33.2% of net sales, an improvement of 2.9 points relative to 2004.

Other operating income and expenses showed net income of €79 million, compared with €181 million in 2004, when this line included €410 million of gains on divestments and €156 million of bid defense costs. Amongst other items, the 2005 figure includes €102 million of gains on divestments (including €70 million on the sale of the oral hygiene business to Procter & Gamble) and a €59 million reversal of a provision related to litigation with Bayer.

Operating income was up 18.7% at €9,119 million, representing 33.4% of net sales (vs. 30.5% in 2004).

Net financial expense was €245 million, compared with €739 million in the previous year. This significant decrease in net financial expense reflects a lower cost of debt and a reduction in debt due to cash flow generated by the Group. Interest charges on debt amounted to €418 million, against €618 million in 2004.

Net financial expense also benefited from a reduction in provisions for investments (€34 million vs.€120 million in 2004) gains on disposals of equity investments, mainly Transkaryotic and Viropharma, of €94 million (vs. €10 million in 2004) and gains from mark to market of financial instruments (positive effect of €49 million in 2005, vs. negative effect of €11 million in 2004).

Income tax expense amounted to €2,774 million, against €2,146 million in 2004. The effective tax rate for the year was 31.3%, compared with 30.9% in 2004.

The share of profit from associates came to €584 million, compared with €535 million in 2004. This line includes the Group's share of after-tax profits from the territories managed by BMS under the Plavix[®] and Avapro[®] alliance (€404 million, vs. €361 million in 2004). The contribution from Merial recorded further growth.

Minority interests were €349 million, against €305 million in 2004. This line includes the share of pre-tax profits paid to over to BMS from territories managed by sanofi-aventis (€300 million, vs. €257 million in 2004).

Net income was up 26.1% at €6,335 million, representing 23.2% of net sales (vs. 19.9% in 2004).

Earnings per share (EPS) was €4.74, 25.7% up on the 2004 figure of €3.77, based on an average number of shares outstanding of 1,336.5 million in 2005 and 1,333.4 million in 2004.

Consolidated cash flows and balance sheet at December 31, 2005

Net cash provided by operating activities (before changes in working capital) in 2005 amounted to €6,637 million.

Net cash used in investing activities amounted to €1,101 million, with capital expenditure totaling €1,143 million. Acquisitions (€692 million) mainly comprised the buyout of the Hoechst minority shareholders, while divestments (€733 million) consisted of the investment in Wacker, the oral hygiene business and various minority interests in the biotechnology sector.

After payment of the dividend³, free cash flow generated in 2005 amounted to €4.3 billion, enabling consolidated net debt to be cut from €14.2 billion at end December 2004 to €9.9 billion at end December 2005. Gearing at end December 2005 stood at 21.2%.

OUTLOOK FOR 2006

Barring major adverse events, sanofi-aventis expects full-year adjusted EPS growth for 2006 around 10%:

- despite the full-year impact of the availability of generics of Allegra[®], Amaryl[®], Arava[®] and DDAVP[®] in the United States;
- after taking account of substantial launch costs of Plavix® in Japan and Rimonabant;
- assuming €300 million after tax of selected items⁴ (gain on disposal of Exubera[®]) against €168 million after tax of selected items in 2005;
- based on an exchange rate of €1:$1.25, with sensitivity to the euro/dollar exchange rate estimated at 0.6% of growth for a 1-cent movement in the exchange rate.

Research and development update

The number of projects in late stage clinical development has increased significantly.

• 55 phase II and III projects, compared with 48 in March 2005.

Three products will move to phase III:

- NV1FGF, a plasmid gene therapy for inducing the formation of new vessels in patients with critical leg ischemia (presentation of phase IIb study results planned at ACC, March 2006).
- SSR 126517, a biotinylated long-acting pentasaccharide, will enter phase III, as the development of idraparinux (presentation of Van Gogh program results planned at ASH, December 2006) offers the potential of abridged clinical development in patients with pulmonary embolism and deep venous thrombosis.
- M 100907, a selective 5HT2 receptor antagonist for enhancing sleep quality, which demonstrated positive phase IIb results in insomnia.

Three compounds are moving to phase IIb:

- AVE7688 (ACE/NEP inhibitor) in hypertension and diabetic nephropathy.
- SL 650472 (serotonin antagonist) in peripheral arterial obstructive disease.
- AVE0010 (GLP1 agonist) in type 2 diabetes.

Two developments have been discontinued: meclinertant in small cell lung cancer, and SL 650155 in Alzheimer's disease.

Comparable net sales: When we refer to the change in our sales on a "comparable" basis, we mean that we exclude the impact of exchange rate movements and changes in Group structure (acquisitions and divestments of interests in entities and rights to products, and changes in consolidation method for consolidated entities).

For any two periods, we exclude the impact of exchange rates by recalculating sales for the earlier period on the basis of exchange rates used in the later period. We exclude the impact of acquisitions by including sales for a portion of the prior period equal to the portion of the current period during which we owned the entity or product rights based on sales information we receive from the party from whom we make the acquisition.

Similarly, we exclude sales in the relevant portion of the prior period when we have sold an entity or rights to a product.

For a change in consolidation method, the prior period is recalculated on the basis of the method used for the current period.

Adjusted net income: We define "adjusted net income" as accounting net income (determined under IFRS) adjusted to exclude (i) the material impacts of purchase accounting for the Aventis acquisition and (ii) acquisition-related integration and restructuring costs. Sanofi-aventis believes that eliminating these impacts from net income gives investors a better understanding of the underlying economic performance of the combined Group.

The material impacts of the application of purchase accounting to the acquisition are as follows:

- charges arising from the remeasurement of Aventis inventories at fair value, net of tax;
- amortization/impairment expense generated by the remeasurement of Aventis intangible assets, net of tax;
- any impairment charged against the goodwill arising on the acquisition.

Sanofi-aventis also excludes acquisition-related integration and restructuring costs from adjusted net income.

A 2004 full-year adjusted pro forma income statement (prepared under IFRS) is presented for comparability purposes as though the offer for Aventis, and the transactions described below, had occurred on January 1, 2004. The basis of preparation of the pro forma income statement is as follows:

- elimination of the income statement contribution of Arixtra, Fraxiparine and Campto;
- elimination of Aventis Behring, divested at the start of 2004.
