

Press Release
January 3, 2000

Celsius:

Bofors Underwater Systems takes home ROV order

The Celsius business unit Bofors Underwater Systems has received an order valued more than SEK 100 M from the French company of Thomson Marconi Sonar for remotely operated underwater vehicles, ROVs, of the type Double Eagle. The Double Eagle is an integral component in the Propelled Variable Depth Sonar System that is order by the French Navy for its Tripartite-type of mine hunting vessels.

For further information, please contact Anders Florenius, Vice President/Group Communications, on + 46 (0)8 - 463 00 53 or + 46 (0)70 – 582 32 30 (mobile).