Ecovision wins big contract with Dagens Industri

Dagens Industri and Ecovision have signed an agreement where Ecovision becomes new provider of financial information to the Dagens Industri Group.

Ecovision will provide the Dagens Industri Group with extensive financial price and news information. Further, Ecovision will develop and operate webservices for online portfolios and graphs. Dagens Industri will also use the realtime system Ecovision ProTrader at Di TV.

The new agreement also means that Ticker News Agency will extend its delivery of financial news to Dagens Industri. Further, Dagens Industri will use Ecovision's extensive fundamental data feed with company reports, key ratios and shareholding overviews.

The agreement starts on May 1st 2006.

In the Dagens Industri Group, there are the daily financial paper Dagens Industri, the Internet site di.se and the TV channel Di TV. Dagens Industri is Sweden's leading daily financial newspaper with an edition of 124.600. Di.se is Sweden's leading Internet service for business news.

The Ecovision Group has the following business areas: Ecovision ProTrader – with real-time financial information, Ecovision Newmedia - developing and operating customized trade- and information services, Ecovision Finansanalys with financial data to the media sector and the Ticker News Agency, with real-time news for the financial markets.

Ecovision group revenue in 2005 amounted to 60,5 million SEK and the operating result was 3,9 million SEK. The Ecovision group has 37 employees and has activities in Sweden, Finland, Norway and Denmark. Ecovision shares are listed on the Stockholm Stock Exchange, New Market.

Ecovision's main shareholder is the French Fininfo Group. Fininfo is a leading European provider of financial information. In 2004, the Fininfo Group turnover was 141million Euro and the group has about 900 employees.
