Park Inn opens its first hotel in Denmark

Brussels, 27 November 2003..... Park Inn, the fresh and energetic upcoming mid-market hotel brand of Rezidor SAS Hospitality, will enter the Danish market with its first hotel in the capital on the first of December. The Park Inn Copenhagen Airport is just a short drive from the airport, a walk away from the beach and ten-minute drive from the city centre.

The Park Inn Copenhagen Airport, known as the Radisson SAS Globetrotter, offers 191 rooms and 6 suites, all equipped with high-speed internet access. Other facilities include the newly renovated restaurant and a bar as well as a fitness centre with exercise rooms, swimming pool, jest stream and massage.

Fredrik Korallus, Senior Vice President & COO Franchised Operations, Rezidor SAS comments: "I am excited about the opening of our first Park Inn hotel in Denmark and the continued rapid growth of the brand in Scandinavia as a whole".

The hotel's well-equipped conference centre includes 10 functionally equipped meeting rooms with high-speed internet access and video conferencing possibilities as well as 10 group rooms. The hotel can host conferences and events up to 400 delegates.
