

Park Inn opens its first hotel in France

Brussels, 1 October 2003..... Park Inn, the fresh and energetic upcoming mid-market hotel brand of Rezidor SAS Hospitality, opens its first hotel in France today. The Park Inn Nice is located at the airport, just seven kilometres away from the city centre and five minutes away from the beach.

All 150 rooms at the Park Inn Nice will undergo extensive renovation as too the reception and all public areas, to be completed by spring next year. Other facilities include two restaurants and a bar, a free shuttle bus from the airport to the hotel, an outdoor swimming pool and Jacuzzi and a fitness centre with workout room, sauna and Turkish steam bath as well as a covered car park. A golf course and a shopping mall are to be found in the direct proximity of the hotel.

Fredrik Korallus, COO Park Inn Hotels comments: "I am very pleased to enter the French market with this flagship property in Nice, which is a true asset to our expanding portfolio".

The meeting facilities include 5 functionally equipped meeting rooms with natural daylight and air-conditioning of which the largest room can accommodate up to 100 people.

