Release date: 28 December 2005

Radisson SAS Hotels & Resorts, part of the fast-growing Brussels-based Rezidor SAS Hospitality, has opened its fourth property in Egypt - Radisson SAS Resort, El Quseir.

The resort is built in the same architectural aesthetics as the charming old town houses nearby, with 250 luxurious rooms including three suites, all with a private balcony or terrace overlooking the red sea. Guests have a choice of three design styles for the rooms – Safari, Quseiri and Ocean.

Pascal Gadet, General Manager, Radisson SAS Resort, El Quseir said: " The intriguing design and subtle blend of contemporary and ethnic styles give the resort a charming authentic atmosphere, which will appeal to the holidaymaker searching for comfort and tranquillity."

The five-star property has three restaurants, three bars and a poolside bar as well as an outdoor swimming pool, a saltwater lagoon, kids pool, tennis courts, ayurvedic spa and wellness and fitness facilities. It also has a sports and diving club for guests who want to explore the marine life of the red sea and horse stables with a riding track.

"With three meeting rooms, totalling 340 square meters, this property also caters for the continuous growing demand of MICE travellers", added Gadet.

El Quseir is one of Egypt's newest destinations on the red sea, located only 150 kilometres south of Hurghada with daily flights from Cairo.
