PRESS RELEASE

Pengar i Sverige AB takes over SEB's cash handling

SEB and Pengar i Sverige AB have signed a long-term agreement covering SEB's cash handling. The agreement is the first step toward SEB's cash-processing centers in Stockholm, Gothenburg and Malmö being taken over by Pengar i Sverige AB.

"This is a step in SEB's strategy of streamlining and focusing on core operations. As a result of this move, we will enhance the efficiency and significantly reduce the costs for our cash processing, concurrent with our costs becoming solely variable. Some 20 employees will join PSAB in conjunction with the takeover of operations," says Ulf Peterson, responsible for Business Support & Production.

"The transaction is a step in our expansion. With this set-up, we offer SEB a variable instead of a fixed cost. Through our close cooperation with our customers, we strive to continuously reduce their costs for cash handling," says Gunnar Malm, president of Pengar i Sverige AB.

Pengar i Sverige AB is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Swedish Riksbank (Central Bank).
