

Anew Learning completes the acquisition of a school in Östersund

Bure announced on 6 November 2007 that Bure's group of independent schools, Anew Learning AB, signed an agreement to take over the operations of the independent school Primrose Friskola in Östersund. The agreement was conditioned on the approval of the Swedish Agency for Education regarding the change of principal.

The Swedish Agency for Education has announced that they accept the change of principal and therefore Anew Learning now will complete the acquisition.
