Starkki sale results in positive earnings effect

The Trelleborg Group and Nordic Capital, via their jointly owned company Trenor Holding, have entered an agreement with Danske Trelastkoncernen regarding the sale of the Starkki Oy building materials chain.

The transaction is subject to the approval of the competition authorities.

It is anticipated that the completion of this transaction, which is expected to take place during the third quarter of 2000, will generate a positive earnings effect of approximately SEK 100 M for the Trelleborg Group.
