Vasakronan best in industry at Universum Awards

More than 15,000 students participated in Universum's survey of the most attractive employer among students. The Property category was won by Vasakronan.

Among companies in the property industry, Vasakronan was top among students.

"It is extremely gratifying to receive confirmation that we are an attractive employer and that our work with students has produced results," comments Håkan Bryngelson, President of Vasakronan.

In the Universum Awards' annual FöretagsBarometer, or company ranking, the company that is the most attractive employer among students at Sweden's colleges and universities is identified. A measurement is made of the employer that is ranked highest among economists, lawyers, graduate engineers and computer/IT students. The employer that is the most attractive in a number of different industries is also selected.
