AudioDev Wins Orders for Blu-Ray Disc Testers Worth about SEK 24 Mln

AudioDev AB, the world-leading supplier of test equipment for quality control of optical media, has won several orders for blu-ray disc testers worth about SEK 24 Mln, in total. The testers will be delivered in the second and third quarter.

The blu-ray disc testers from AudioDev focus on high precision and measurement accuracy and include replica and stamper testers for prerecorded and recordable media.

"It's gratifying that AudioDev has received these first major orders for testers for mass production of BD-discs," says Christer Sjöström, CEO of AudioDev.

Due to an agreement, AudioDev is for the time being prevented from naming the customers.
