

California Casino – Good Gaming Vibrations from Boss Media

Vaxjo, Sweden - October 5, 2000

The surf's up at California Casino (www.californiacasino.com) operated by Global Interest Ltd, a new creation from world-leading casino software supplier Boss Media. Internet players are invited to surf their way to the innovative new California Casino, which opens for real bets today. The games at California Casino were designed with state-of-the-art graphics and sound to bring Internet players good vibrations in a genuine California setting.

California Casino's software offers blackjack, roulette, Caribbean poker, video poker, traditional slot machines, progressive slot machines, and keno. California Casino's gaming software was designed by world-leading software provider Boss Media and includes top-notch graphics and sound effects for a unique and realistic gaming experience. The software is available for free download from the Internet. Players can also request the software to be sent to them on a free CD-ROM.

"Just as there's no place like California, there's no online casino like California Casino," affirms California Casino's Manager. "The ocean, the laid-back atmosphere - we've pretty much captured the appeal of California in the gaming software. Players are in for a lot of fun!"
