Susanne Lithander new CEO of Bure's subsidiary Mercuri International Group AB

Mercuri International Group AB has appointed Susanne Lithander as its new President and CEO. Susanne comes most recently from Ericsson, where she has been the head of the company's education and consulting business in the Global Services division. She will take up her new duties in January 2009.

Through key positions in Ericsson's service and consulting business, Susanne has gained in-depth expertise in leading and developing international knowledge companies.

"I am enormously pleased that we have succeeded in recruiting Susanne Lithander. With her solid experience of managing international consulting operations, she will be a valuable asset for Mercuri's future development," says Martin Henricson, President and CEO of Bure Equity AB.

Mercuri International Group AB is Europe's leading sales and management training consultancy, with global coverage through wholly owned subsidiaries and franchisees.
