Martin Lindqvist appointed CFO at Munters

Martin Lindqvist has been appointed Group Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Munters AB. He will assume his position March 1, 2009.

Mr. Lindqvist brings international experience from several senior management positions in Tetra Pak, most recently as Vice President Finance & Control for Tetra Pak Processing Solutions. His career also includes finance positions in Trelleborg and Holmen. Currently, Mr. Lindqvist is Vice President and Group Controller for Mercuri Urval Group.

– The CFO position is one of the most important positions in Munters. Martins' business understanding and drive will further develop our business control and financial reporting. His most important contribution as a member of Group Management will be to accelerate necessary strategic initiatives to strengthen Munters position for long term profitable growth, says CEO Lars Engström.

Jonas Samuelson, present CFO for Munters, will leave the company November 30, 2008.
