

Ericsson appoints Investor Relations executive for Stockholm

Ericsson continues to expand its Investor Relations department with the appointment of Maria Bernström as Director of Investor Relations in Stockholm.

Effective immediately, Maria will, together with the existing IR staff in Stockholm, complement the IR offices in New York and London especially for investors in Sweden and continental Europe.

In London, Lotta Wiklund has already started as Investor Relations Manager with a focus in the UK financial market. Gary Pinkham, Vice President Investor Relations in New York will continue to support the American and Asian markets while heading Ericsson's global IR activities.

Maria, with a Business Administration degree from the University of Stockholm, has been with Ericsson since 1985. Prior to this, she was with Price Waterhouse as an Auditor. At Ericsson, she has held various positions in finance and business controlling both in Sweden and in the USA.

Additional appointments in the global IR organization will be announced as Ericsson increases its support of the investment community.
