New information manager at ReadSoft

The Swedish TV journalist Olof Engvall will become the new information manager at ReadSoft as from December 1. Olof Engvall has, among other things, been part of building SVT24 in Stockholm, Sweden's first twenty-four hour news channel.

Olof Engvall has previously been working at the regional news program Sydynytt in southern Sweden, where he has been engaged as a program leader/editor. Olof has also been part of building the SVT24 in Stockholm, Sweden's first twenty-four hour news channel. At SVT 24 Olof Engvall worked as a program leader and editor and was also the first program leader on the air when the channel was inaugurated in March 1999.

"In the exciting and expansive phase that the company is now currently in, the need for fast and reliable information increases every day. It feels like a challenge to supply news about ReadSoft to all our customers, stockholders, market and not the least, internally," comments Olof Engvall.
