POC PRESS RELEASE 2009-03-24

POC Wheels soon available in stores!

POC's first line of protection for downhill, freeride and BMX will be available in stores around the world in a few weeks from now. Immense interest and a pile of reviews of the gear makes us very expectant.

The POC Wheels line is as of today launched on our website: www.pocsports.com

POC is a Swedish company that develops and markets personal protective gear for gravity sports athletes.
