Kurt Dahlberg Leaves Morphic's Board

Kurt Dahlberg, one of the founders of Morphic, has requested to leave Morphic's Board of Directors with effect from today.

"Morphic is going through an intensive and vital phase of establishing its products in the market. I therefore believe that, going forward, I will contribute most to the company's operations in my new role as a consultant to Morphic focusing on market development," Kurt Dahlberg says in a comment.
