SAS comments on Spanair

With reference to a telegram from Bloomberg News Agency earlier today SAS would like to make the following comment:

The owners of Spanair currently review various options for future development of the structure of the company. These options include the possibility of inviting a partner on the equity side.

Regardless of the outcome of this process, present owners will continue to retain its control in Spanair.

However, no decision has been made so far in this matter.

SAS holds 49 per cent in Spanair and SAS Spanish partner Teinver holds 51 per cent
