

Joe Labero becomes "Illusionist of the decade "

His illusions are the best in the world this decade. Saturday June 13th the Norwegian TV2 will broadcast the award winning show with Joe Labero. The show can also be viewed on the website www.tv2.no

In July, the Swedish-international magician Joe Labero will receive the award "Illusionist of the decade" in connection with the magic World Cup in Beijing, 26-31 July. The award has previously been received by David Copperfield and Siegfried & Roy and intends world touring illusions during the years 2000-2009. The prize is awarded by The Merlin Award Society, the Oscar organization of the magic world, based in Las Vegas.

Winning illusions

The jury got influenced by Joe Labero modernization of "The Crossing" and "The slice" as two examples.

Magic on the Web

Tomorrow Saturday June 13th Norwegian TV2 broadcasts the show from Drammens Theater. These illusions have not been seen in any television broadcast before. People interested in magic can see the show at 8 pm in Norwegian TV2, and from 9 pm will on the web www.tv2.no search for Joe Labero.

Tour of Scandinavia

Sunday 14th June is the final of Joe Labero's Swedish tour in Halmstad. Then the tour will continue to Finland and Norway.

Press questions regarding Joe Labero: an@labero.com