Catella Förmögenhetsförvaltning recruits strong manager

Nalini Bonnier has been recruited to head the management team at Catella Förmögenhetsförvaltning. Thus, an already strong team of specialists is complemented with yet another heavy profile in order to ensure success in the work of developing a successful portfolio management business.

Nalini Bonnier most recently held the position of portfolio manager and partner at the Manticore Capital hedge fund within Brummer & Partners. Before that she was vice president and partner at Wiborg Kapitalförvaltning, as well as portfolio manager for their Concepio hedge fund.

“We are proud to have recruited such a skilled manager to our team. Nalini has demonstrated extremely successful management results and we look to having her in our team,” says Fredrik Sauter, CEO of Catella Förmögenhetsförvaltning.

Catella Förmögenhetsförvaltning provides independent financial advisory services within the area of long-term wealth management. The Catella Group has approximately SEK 34 billion in assets under management and aims to continue to grow within wealth management in the coming years.
