

camexpo 2011 announces initial exhibitor list

Symprove, Creative Nature, Viridian Nutrition, Physique Management, and Nutri-Link are just a some of the first time exhibitors ready to meet 5500 camexpo practitioners and therapists, when the dedicated event for complementary healthcare professionals, returns to London's Earls Court on 22-23 October 2011.

No other UK show represents so many different aspects of the CAM market all under one roof and camexpo's breadth of appeal is demonstrated by the incredible range of leading CAM suppliers confirmed to date. The organisers, Diversified Business Communications UK, say that over 30% of the 200 companies set to exhibit are new to the event, thus ensuring visitors will benefit from a unique opportunity to source the most up-to-date new product ranges for their customers.

New exhibitors looking to strengthen and expand their presence in the UK's CAM market include leading herbal remedy specialists Rickard Lanes/Napiers Herbal Health; Probiotics International, manufacturer of probiotic Bio-Kult; natural skin care specialist The Herbjar; Kara Dairy Free, with its coconut-based, non-dairy milk enriched with calcium; Sussex-based health product importer Healthy Distribution & Logistics; VMS supplier Vita Green Europa SA; USA-based Miracle Noodle, whose ready-to-eat Shirataki noodles are a gluten and calorie free alternative to pasta; 1880 Life, exclusive UK and Ireland distributors for leading brands such as Salvestrols, Stepping Free, and Udo's Choice; and api-ar international from Belgium, whose natural health ranges combine honey bee products with essential plant oils.
