

StanleyBlack&Decker

Stanley Black & Decker Announces Acquisition of Niscayah Shares

New Britain, Connecticut, August 9, 2011

Stanley Black & Decker, Inc. (NYSE: SWK) (the "Company") announced that its wholly owned Swedish subsidiary has acquired in total 72,005,890 class B shares of Niscayah Group AB (publ) ("Niscayah"), representing approximately 19.8% of the outstanding shares¹ and approximately 13.9% of the total number of votes in Niscayah, at prices not exceeding SEK 18. The acquisition of these shares was made through purchases outside of the Company's pending tender offer to acquire all the outstanding shares and warrants of Niscayah. This accumulation of shares reflects the Company's commitment to the tender offer announced on June 27, 2011.

Stanley Black & Decker, an S&P 500 company, is a diversified global provider of hand tools, power tools and related accessories, mechanical access solutions and electronic security solutions, engineered fastening systems, infrastructure solutions and more. Learn more at www.stanleyblackanddecker.com.

The information in this press release was submitted for publication on August 9, 2011 at 5 p.m. (CET) (11 a.m. ET).

¹ Based on 363,258,897 outstanding Niscayah shares (excluding 1,800,000 treasury shares).

Contacts (United States):

Kate White Vanek
Director, Investor Relations, Stanley Black & Decker
(860) 827-3833
kate.vanek@sbdinc.com

Tim Perra
Director, Global Communications, Stanley Black & Decker
(860) 826-3260
tim.perra@sbdinc.com

Sard Verbinnen & Co
David Reno/Brooke Gordon
(212) 687-8080

Contact (Sweden):

JKL
Erik Nilsson
+ 46 738 394 118