Scania launches new city and suburban buses

Today Scania presents a new family of city and suburban buses: Scania Citywide.

The world premiere takes place at Europe's leading bus trade fair, Busworld in Kortrijk, Belgium.

Information about the new Scania Citywide and a lot more from Scania's stand at Busworld is available from the pressroom on www.scania.com/media/citywide

Scania is one of the world's leading manufacturers of trucks and buses for heavy transport applications, and of industrial and marine engines. Service-related products is a growing proportion of the company's operations, assuring Scania customers of cost-effective transport solutions and maximum uptime. Scania also provides financial services. Employing some 35,500 people, Scania operates in about 100 countries. Research and development activities are concentrated in Sweden, while production takes place in Europe and South America, with facilities for global interchange of both components and complete vehicles. In 2010, net sales totalled SEK 78 billion and net income amounted to SEK 9.1 billion.
