

Founder of GolfPyramid.com receives first TrackMan Master certificate

TrackMan, the top radar golf solution used by PGA tour, recently launched TrackMan University. Founder of GolfPyramid.com, John Hellstrom, was tested by TrackMan University and became the worlds first TrackMan Master. "TrackMan is great for club delivery and ball flight analysis. It is an effective complement to the game statistics, fitness analysis and mental evaluations made in GolfPyramid.com", says John Hellström.
