

Today the playing schedule for Gothia Innebandy Cup 2012 is presented

Today the playing schedule for Gothia Innebandy Cup, the world's largest and most international youth floorball tournament, will be presented. This year the tournament has attracted 450 teams from five different nations - Sweden, Norway, Finland, Denmark and the Czech Republic.

- It is gratifying to see that we year after year consolidate our position as the leading youth floorball tournament. I take this as a confirmation on that our effort in offering our visitors a memorable experience, both on and off the playing field, really is appreciated, says Lena Rönnefors, tournament director for Gothia Innebandy Cup.

Gothia Innebandy Cup is being played in Gothenburg from 5 to 8 January 2012 in the age group 11-18 years for boys and 12-18 years for girls.
